

Picture Perfect

STUDIOMAX are expanding and are now open in Templestowe, Ringwood and Mornington. With our new state of the art studio under construction at rear 206 Main Street, Mornington and due for opening in the next couple of months, we are now able to meet the needs of more clients along the Peninsula and around Victoria.

The team at STUDIOMAX are recognised for their energetic style, enthusiasm and professionalism. This ensures that your photographic experience, whether if be your wedding, family portraits, glamour or modelling portfolios, will be an exciting yet comfortable experience.

Using both conventional photography and the latest in digital techniques we create images that are unforgettable. Preparation for all printing is done in-house, ensuring the highest level of quality control on each and every image, black and white, sepia, hand colouring, high contrast or even removal of marks and blemishes. The result – perfectly printed photographs.

Twice winner of Photographer of the Year at the ABIA, current photographer of the cover of Melbourne Wedding & Bride Magazine, and with a reputation that is second to none, STUDIOMAX will take the guesswork out of choosing the right photographer.
